ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION¹

The Respondent's motion for reconsideration of the Board's Decision and Order reported at 370 NLRB No. 78 (2021) is denied. The Respondent has not identified any material error or demonstrated extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration under Section 102.48(c)(1) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.²

Dated, Washington, D.C., April 12, 2021.

¹ The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

² We note that not only did the Region follow Sec. 102.4 of the Board's Rules and Regulations with respect to regular, certified, and email service of pleadings and other pertinent documents in this case, but also that the email address that the Respondent provided to the Region on January 22, 2021, is the same email address that the Region used in serving the Respondent with documents in 2020. Specifically, the Region used that email address to serve the Respondent with the complaint on October 30, the Region's warning letter on November 18, and the motion for default judgment on December 3.
